Frequently Asked Questions

Community Evenings for Abbott Districts Present ID for Admission

What is an LSC Community Evening?

Community Evenings are hosted several times a year for students and families from New Jersey's 31 former Abbott Districts. Held from 5:30 - 9:00 pm, eligible guests can explore LSC's exhibitions, see films, engage in live demonstrations and hands-on activities, and learn about valuable community resources available through generous participation by local organizations, all at no cost.

How do I know if we are eligible to attend?

Schools—Must be a public school (traditional or charter) in one of NJ's 31 former Abbott districts. Check www.state.nj.us/education/archive/abbotts/web.htm for a full list.

Individuals—Must reside or attend a public school (traditional or charter) in one of NJ's 31 former Abbott districts.

Adult & Senior Groups—You are not eligible. Community Evenings are student and family events.

What if we are not eligible?

If you or your family do not meet the above parameters, check our corporate membership list here to see if you are eligible for benefits during normal operating hours or here for free admission on the first Saturday of every month as a Bank of America cardholder through the Museums on Us program.

Should we register in advance?

Public Schools—Registration is required for school-organized trips. To register, e-mail your school name, city, preferred date, number of students and chaperones, and contact information to Irose@lsc.org. Please use your public school e-mail address for registration.

Individuals—Registration is not required. Liberty Science Center does not provide transportation. Please be sure to bring proper identification!

What are acceptable forms of identification?

ID is required for individuals traveling on their own without a school. Acceptable forms of identification are a driver's license, state ID, school ID, report card, or progress report.

May I reserve theater tickets?

No. Tickets for films are available free on a first-come, first-served basis at the box office beginning at 5:30 pm on each Community Evening. Tickets cannot be reserved or picked up in advance and may be limited to one show per person.

How much is parking during Community Evenings?

Free!
