Better to Smell You with, My Dear Fourth Floor, Our Hudson Home Lab
Bones tell us many things about an animal's life. Taking just a few measurements can tell us what they ate, how intelligent they were, or what their strongest sense was. Measure real animal skulls to determine which species had the best sense of smell. Sign-up required at Our Hudson Home Lab. Recommended for ages 10+.

LSC News

Get ready Trekkies! We are excited to announce our newest traveling exhibit, Star Trek: The Starfleet Academy Experience, the largest exhibition ever to open at LSC! Both Trekkies and non-Trekkies will be engaged by the science behind the science fiction. Special member priced tickets required for entrance.

Be on the lookout for information about the opening of The Jennifer Chalsty Planetarium and LSC Giant Dome Theater, the biggest and most technologically advanced planetarium in the Western Hemisphere. Planned opening is late 2017. In addition to out-of-this-world planetarium shows, you will also enjoy immersive films on the wraparound dome screen courtesy of a brand new digital projection system.

Wizard Workshop

First Floor, PSE&G Court

Have you ever wanted to create potions like a real wizard? Our apprentice witches and wizards will teach you how! Come to the Wizard Workshop to whip up a potion that creates slimy creatures beyond your imagination, makes ghosts disappear, and changes color right before your eyes.

Zombie Foodie – 6:30, 7:15, 8:00 pm

First Floor, Interactive Theater

Braaiinnss! Well, actually, zombies can be quite the food connoisseurs, enjoying far more than just human brains. Join our gruesome gourmet as she reviews her next meal! We need some ~~victims~~ volunteers with healthy, fresh organs to help us learn about anatomy, and hear easy tips for enjoying human flesh if you ever become a zombie, too. Suitable for ages 6+. Seats are limited. Free tickets available at the Jennifer Chalsty Center on a first-come, first-served basis.

Spooky We Explore Activities and Story Time

Second Floor, I Explore

It's a special, creepy We Explore for members only! Young learners can build a skeleton, make a spider web, and assemble monsters. At Story Time, we will read The Itsy Bitsy Pumpkin, Goodnight Goon, and Pete the Cat: Trick or Pete. Recommended for ages 2 – 5.

Dance at the Bug Ball

Second Floor, Governors Hall

Join DJ Rob for Halloween fun on the dance floor.

The Spider Maze

(Outdoors) Second Floor, Stanton Garden

Join us and some of our spider friends for a maze of epic proportions. Make your way through this maze to learn more about six individual spiders and their unique traits all while solving a puzzle. Don't worry, our spiders won't jump or frighten you, but help you learn about these eight-legged critters. (Weather permitting)

Animal Masquerade – 7:00 pm

Third Floor, Eat & Be Eaten

Humans love to dress up on Halloween, but animals use deception all the time! Masters of disguise can be found throughout the animal kingdom, using unique adaptations to survive. We are sometimes tricked into thinking some important animals are “scary”, but the truth may surprise you. Learn about these tricks as you are treated to hands-on encounters with our live animals.

Activities: 6:00 – 8:30 pm, unless otherwise noted (cont'd.)

Spatter Science

Third Floor, Infection Connection Lab

Spatter is composed of small droplets of liquid – like blood, for example. Blood spatter at a crime scene can provide us information on how tall the person bleeding was, where the victim was standing when injured, and what kind of weapon was used. Join our forensic lab team in analyzing spatter at our crime scene and investigate the clues the spatter left behind. Sign-up required at Infection Connection Lab. Recommended for ages 10+.

Monster Hearts

Third Floor, Infection Connection Lab

We need a mad scientist to assist Dr. Frankenstein, who is creating his newest monster. He has dug up bones and carefully stitched each piece together, but he needs your help with the heart. Learn what makes the heart go pitter-patter and its inner workings. Sign-up required at Infection Connection Lab. Recommended for ages 8+.

Pumpkin Check-up

Third Floor, Infection Connection Lab

It's pumpkin season! Do you know the anatomy of a pumpkin? Join us to become a pumpkin expert and explore the inner anatomy of a pumpkin using an endoscope—one of the tools that medical doctors use to see what's inside humans! The endoscope might reveal some seeds, a carved message, or other secrets left inside everyone's favorite fall gourd.

Doom Zoo

Third Floor, Communication

Are you ready to face your fears? Enter the horrific workshop of Doctor Krieger von Crimson, a surgeon obsessed with blurring the line between man and animal. His domain imprisons his tormented experiments, nauseating mutants you have to see to believe. But beware, he is always on the lookout for his next “project.” Prepare for petrifying scares and blood-curdling screams should you dare to step inside.....THE DOOM ZOO! Recommended for ages 13+. Due to the intensity of this attraction, it is NOT recommended for guests under the age of 13. We are not kidding!

Flora the Fortune Teller

Fourth Floor, Energy Quest

Have you ever wondered what your fortune will be? Want to know how much candy you'll get this Halloween? Well, Flora – LSC's resident fortune teller – returns to help answer these and many other questions about your future. Come visit Flora to have your fortune told, if you dare!!
